

MARAC (Multi Agency Risk Assessment Conference) & DASH (Domestic Abuse, Stalking, Harassment and Honour Based Abuse) Risk Identification Checklist

A MARAC (Multi Agency Risk Assessment Conference) and DASH (Domestic Abuse, Stalking, Harassment and Honour Based Abuse) Risk Identification Checklist training course for RBWM multi-agency professionals, community organisations and individuals. This training course will enable learners to:

- Understand risk assessment in domestic abuse
- Explore agency responsibility in relation to risk identification, assessment and management
- Learn how to evaluate and determine the level of risk, using a DASH Risk Identification Checklist
- Feel more confident to work with victims of domestic abuse in a safety focused way
- Be aware of the role of the Independent Domestic Violence Advocate (IDVA).
- Understand how to refer into the MARAC, its processes and the importance of proportionate information sharing and co-ordinated action planning
- Gain knowledge of local and national relevant support services.
- Understand how this learning may impact on their own work situation

Target audience: Professionals working in the RBWM area (public sector, voluntary sector or new to the role of Designated MARAC Officer) whereby disclosure of domestic abuse may take place. The training is suitable for those working both with adults and children.
You should have a sound understanding of domestic abuse issues, prior to undertaking this course. Understanding and responding to Domestic Abuse and/or other Safeguarding training are suitable options.
